

1860 LONDON TRADES COUNCIL

GLATUC 2010

GLATUC

150th

2010 is the 150th anniversary of the London Trades Council founded in 1860. Now the Greater London Association of Trade Union Councils (GLATUC), it will celebrate this important milestone in trade union history. Various events are planned over the year including a Celebratory Meeting on October 23 2010.

There are different ways you can support this year of celebration.

We are looking for sponsorship and/or you can advertise in our full colour commemorative booklet - (page £300, half £160, quarter £80, eighth £40)

GLATUC

150th

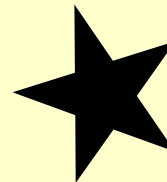

The London Trades Council was founded to develop ways workers could act in solidarity. The employment scene was changing rapidly, employers and bankers had the whip hand and wages & conditions were under attack.

★ That is still the issue before us today. GLATUC wants to look again at how union members can act in solidarity - to build for the the next 150 years.

Fighting for union rights
Fighting for jobs
Fighting for equality

Building solidarity
